Aadhaar is a 12-digit unique identification number issued by UIDAI and serves as a primary document for identification proof. Apart from that, it also helps to avail various services and benefits, including various government subsidies. However, in case you have lost or misplaced your original Aadhaar Card you can get a duplicate copy of your Aadhaar card through the 'Reprint Aadhaar Card' facility provided by UIDAI. To get an identical copy of your Aadhaar, having the likewise card number and other details as the original card you need to have Enrolment number/Aadhaar number. The enrollment number is mentioned in the acknowledgement slip provided at the time of enrolling for the Aadhaar card. In case you don't have an Aadhaar Enrolment number or Aadhaar number, you can still download the duplicate Aadhaar card by following the below-mentioned steps: Visit the official website of UIDAI by clicking on . Now, under Aadhaar, click on Retrieve Lost/Forgotten EID/UID. Next, choose either Aadhaar Number or Enrollment ID and enter details such as Full Name, registered mobile number, captcha code and click on Send OTP. As you enter the OTP, you will now receive Aadhaar Number/Enrollment ID on your registered mobile number. Now, visit to download the duplicate copy of your Aadhaar Card. Enter, Aadhaar number/ Enrollment ID, captcha code and click on get OTP. Finally, enter the OTP in the 'Enter OTP' tab and click on 'Validate and Generate' to generate a PDF file of Aadhaar. If you want to get the duplicate Aadhaar Card through the offline method, you need to follow the below-mentioned steps: Call the UIDAI's toll-free number 1947 or 1800-180-1947. Now, follow the IVR options and talk to the Aadhaar executive. As your call is connected to the Aadhaar executive, request with the executive for a duplicate copy of your Aadhaar card. The executive will then verify your identity and once verified, your request will be accepted. Finally, you will receive the duplicate Aadhaar card to your residential address by post. You can visit the nearest Aadhaar Enrollment Centre to get duplicate Aadhaar Card by following the below-mentioned steps. Firstly, visit the nearest Aadhaar Enrolment Centre and fill the Aadhaar Correction form. If you have your Aadhaar number or enrolment number, you can place a request for issuing a duplicate Aadhaar. Otherwise, the Aadhaar executive will verify your identity using biometrics and initiate the process for issuing a duplicate Aadhaar. Finally, after successful processing of your request, your Aadhaar will be sent to your residential address. Aadhaar Reprint Service HaltedUIDAI has informed in its tweet that the Aadhaar Reprint service has been discontinued, and you can order Aadhaar online and take a printout of your e-Aadhaar. It takes around 5 working days excluding the day of placing the request for duplicate Aadhaar once the request for Aadhaar card reprint has been placed. Yes, you can download your Aadhaar card online through the official website of UIDAI for Aadhaar Application if your mobile number is linked with Aadhaar. Aadhaar reprint is a service provided by UIDAI through which you can place your request to get the reprint of your Aadhaar if you have lost, misplaced or want a new copy of your Aadhaar card. If you have lost your Aadhaar card, you can download the e-Aadhaar through the official website of UIDAI. However, to do so, your mobile number must be linked with Aadhaar. Else, you can get a duplicate Aadhaar by visiting the nearest Aadhaar Enrolment centre or calling UIDAI toll-free number. No, Aadhaar is an identification document for availing various benefits and services; however, it cannot be misplaced. In case you have any doubts about misuse of your Aadhaar, you can lock your Aadhaar card online on the UIDAI website. Your e-Aadhaar card is an electronic form of your Aadhaar card. This means that you can use your e-Aadhaar for various government verifications. Like the Aadhaar card, the e-Aadhaar contains all the necessary information, such as your biometric data, demographic details, Aadhaar number, photograph, and general information, including your name, date of birth, and sex. To use your e-Aadhaar, you will need to download the same. Resident can also use TOTP to download e-Aadhaar instead of OTP. TOTP can generated using mAadhaar mobile Application. How to validate digital signatures in e-Aadhaar? Open or Close Computer must be connected to internet while validating digital signature. Download your E-Aadhaar and open the pdf in Adobe Reader only Right click on the 'validity unknown' icon and click on 'Validate Signature' You will get the signature validation status window, click on 'Signature Properties'. Click on 'Show Signer's Certificate'. Verify that there is a certification issued by the name '(n)Code Solutions CA 2014'. On Summary page(tab), Click on 'Export' Click 'Next' to save the certificate in your local system (Desktop/Laptop). After that click 'Next' and then 'Finish' Click on 'Trust' tab, then Click on 'Add to trusted certificate'. After that Select all three options under 'Certified documents' and click 'Ok' Click again on 'Validate Signature' and close the window Once '(n)Code Solutions CA 2014' has been as a Trusted Identity, any subsequent documents with digital signatures from CCA will be validated automatically when opened. In case Certificate validity is seen to have an expired certificate, on the machine; you are requested to download the E-Aadhaar once again and re-validate the signature, using the said procedure given in above points and add the newly downloaded certificate again to 'Trusted Certificate' category on local machine for adding valid/current digital certificate. The invalid digital signature on the downloaded e-Aadhaar can also be validated on another machine, other than the machine where it was downloaded i.e. Laptop/Desktop. However, for this document to be validated, the digital certificate needs to be downloaded and validated as per the procedure above on the alternate machine. Note: - Once 'NIC sub-CA for NIC 2011, National Informatics centre' has been as a Trusted Identity, any subsequent documents with digital signatures from CCA will be validated automatically when opened. KUMAR Year of Birth: 1990 Password: P.KU1990 Example 4 Name: RIA Year of Birth: 1990 Password: RIA1990 Aadhaar Enrolment Process What is the procedure for NRS to enrol for Aadhaar? Open or Close Any resident of India including NRIs (having valid Indian Passport) can enrol for Aadhaar. When the applicant fills an Aadhaar enrolment form (Download Enrolment Form Here.), he/she also gives a signed declaration to this effect. NRIs also need to visit an Aadhaar Centre with one Proof of Identity and one Proof of Address as per the list of acceptable documents. Acceptable Documents List. What is the option if the address indicated on the Proof of Address (PoA) document appears to be inadequate for postal delivery? Can additional information from the residents be accepted? Open or Close Yes. The resident is allowed to add minor fields to the address mentioned in the PoA document as long as these additions/modifications do not alter the base address mentioned in the PoA document. If the changes requested are substantial and change the base address that is mentioned in the PoA, an alternate PoA is required to be provided. Will the refund be provided after cancelling the appointment? Open or Close Yes, refund shall be processed on cancellation of the booked appointment. After processing the refund, the amount usually gets credited back to the user account in 7-21 days. The resident is advised to re-schedule an appointment if booked service is not availed at the UIDAI ASK. Whether UIDAI has defined a process to be followed for Family enrolments? Open or Close Yes. The resident and Head of the Family (HoF) should present themselves at the time of enrolment. The resident should produce a valid Proof of Identity (POI) document for new enrolment and Name update. The address of HoF can be shared with the family member by providing authentication. What kind of data gets captured during Aadhaar enrolment? Open or Close Two types of data are captured for Aadhaar enrolment i.e. Demographics (Name, Gender, DoB, Address, Mobile number and email id) & Biometric (10 Finger Prints, Both Iris and Photograph). Mobile number and email id are optional. Where multiple address proofs are available for a resident (e.g., present and native), which proof would UIDAI accept, and where will it send Aadhaar Letter? Open or Close The UIDAI asks the resident to confirm the address (from the multiple address proofs) which he/ she wants to register in his/ her Aadhaar. The Aadhaar Letter will be delivered on the Address registered in Aadhaar. Based on the resident's choice & supporting documents, UIDAI captures the demographic details. What is the enrolment procedure for children below the age of 5 years? Open or Close The UIDAI enrolls residents of all ages, including infants. However, biometric information is not collected for children under the age of 5 years. For children under 5 years of age, their Aadhaar is linked to one of their parents or guardians. Such children need to submit their biometric information (Photograph, ten Fingerprints and two irises) once they attain the age of 5 years. These biometrics needs to be updated again when they attain age of 15 years. Where can I enrol for Aadhaar? Open or Close You have to visit an Aadhaar Enrolment Centre to enrol for Aadhaar. You can search nearest Enrolment Centre by Pincode, State/District and locality by clicking on Locate Enrolment Center or appointments.uidai.gov.in Whether the Ration Card, MGNREGA Card etc can be accepted as Valid Proof of Identity/Address for the family members listed in the document in case they do not have separate PoI or PoA documents? Open or Close Yes. The family entitlement document is accepted as Proof of Identity/Address for enrolment of family members as long as the photograph of Head of the Family and family members is clearly visible on the document. What are the documents required for enrolment for Aadhaar? Open or Close You need to fill up an enrolment application form (available free of cost) at the Enrolment Centre along with supporting documents which are Proof of Identity (PoI), Proof of Address (PoA), Proof of Relationship (PoR), and Date of Birth(DoB) document. View the list of Valid Documents here. Acceptable Documents List. How much time does it take to get my Aadhaar generated after the enrolment? Can I get it at Aadhaar Enrolment Centre? Open or Close You can download your Aadhaar yourself from myAadhaar portal. For the same, you need to have a mobile number registered with Aadhaar. If you don't have your mobile number registered with Aadhaar or do not want to use an online service, you can use the Aadhaar download and coloured print service available at an Aadhaar Enrolment Centre at a charge of Rs. 30/- . The physical presence of the Aadhaar holder is required for biometric authentication. Further, you can also order an Aadhaar PVC card from UIDAI website. I have enrolled for Aadhaar multiple times but have not received my Aadhaar letter. What should I do in this case? Open or Close There are chances that your Aadhaar has been generated but you have not received the Aadhaar letter by post. In this case, it is recommended to get your Aadhaar status checked, for all your EIDs, by clicking on Check Aadhaar Status or or by visiting the nearest Permanent Aadhaar Enrolment centre. My Aadhaar request is rejected. What should I do? Open or Close Aadhaar generation involves various quality checks. Therefore, there are chances that your Aadhaar request got rejected due to quality or any other technical reason. If you have received SMS that your Aadhaar request has been rejected, it is recommended to re-enrol yourself. My Date of Birth/ Name/ Gender update got rejected and I have been asked to contact the Regional Office. Can I do that update at Aadhaar Seva Kendra? Open or Close Yes. The second time update of Date of Birth or Gender or third time update of Name of the resident comes under 'exception update'. You can carry out the update at Aadhaar Centre and then approach the concerned Regional Office of UIDAI for approval of update under exception. These approval require due diligence by authorized officials. Details of UIDAI Regional Offices available here: Contact details of regional-offices What are Resident's responsibilities in ensuring that his/her enrolment does not get rejected? Open or Close Resident must review the details in English as well as in local language by looking at the resident screen available in front of him/her. Ensure that Name, Gender, DoB, Address, etc. details are entered correctly. Also, ensure that no titles/ salutations like Mr./ Mrs./ Col./ Dr. etc. are prefixed or suffixed to the name. It is recommended to provide full name instead of initials for e.g. B.K Sharma should be written as Brij Kumar Sharma. Review that photograph captured by the operator is correct and recognizable. Is there any online method of getting enrolled for Aadhaar? Open or Close No, you have to personally visit Aadhaar Enrolment Centre for getting yourself enrolled as your biometrics will be captured. Is there any age limit for Aadhaar enrolment? Open or Close No, there is no age limit defined for Aadhaar enrolment. Even a newborn baby can be enrolled for Aadhaar. I lost my Aadhaar and my mobile number is also not registered with Aadhaar. Can I get it at ASK? Open or Close Yes. You may visit any UIDAI-run Aadhaar Seva Kendra to download your Aadhaar and get a printout. At ASK you would be required to provide your Aadhaar number. This service is also available at Aadhaar Enrolment Centre in Banks, Post Offices, BSNL, Central or State Government offices. Is it mandatory to provide mobile number or email id for Aadhaar enrolment? Open or Close No, it is not mandatory to provide a mobile number or email id for Aadhaar enrolment. But it is always recommended to provide a mobile number and email id so that you get updates regarding your Aadhaar application status and can get a number of services based on Aadhaar through OTP-based authentication. Can I get enrolled for Aadhaar if any of my fingers or iris is missing? Open or Close Yes, you can enrol for Aadhaar even if any or all fingers / iris are missing as exception cases.
